LOCAL ITEMS.

C. L. Hefner went up in Alabama this week on business.

Time saved by first going to D. J. Hughes.

Miss Florine Irwin is in Pulaski for a few weeks stay with relatives and friends.

The reason D. J. Hughes has the shoe trade of the town is the value you get for the money.

Rev. S. H. Holmes will preach at Willoughby the 3rd Sunday in Oct. at 11 a. m.

D. J. Hughes is having a good Cape trade.

M. I. Brown, of Maddox, called in to see Saturday and deposited one fifty with us for the Courier.

D. J. Hughes has certainly stocked up on Over-coats, and he is selling them.

Misses Stella and Irene Barlow left Monday for Louisville, Ky., where they will spend several weeks with relatives.

Men Muslin and Outing Night Shirts for 50c at D. J. Hughes.

Mrs. Annie Barnhill, of Paducah, Ky., is visiting her numerous friends and relatives in and near town this week.

A Torpid Liver causes Depression of Spirits, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache. Use Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine to stimulate that organ. Sold by Welch Bros.

W. B. Parkhill and family have moved from Cerro Gordo out into the Walker neighborhood near Savannah, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Parkhill is holding a clerkship at present with C. L. Hefner.

Nature can only feed the flame of life with the food eaten which is digested. Herbs will reinvigorate a weak stomach, and so improve digestion as to insure the natural bloom of health. Price 25 and 50 cts. Sold by J. K. Barlow.

J. T. Martin, of Nixon, was in town Monday. He informed us that two aged white ladies while on their way to church a-foot at that place Sunday night, was run over by a frightened horse and was seriously hurt.

For all fresh cuts or wounds, in either the human subject or in animals, as a dressing, Ballard's Snow Liniment is excellent; while for sores on working horses, especially if slow to heal, or suppurating, its healing qualities are unequalled. Price 25 and 50 cts. Sold by J. K. Barlow.

Mr. S. S. Hudiburg, field agent for the Cumberland Presbyterian Pab. House, Nashville, was in the city Monday. Mr. Hudiburg is on the road the greater part of his time, and is now doing work in the middle part of the State for his company.

Col. William Dodds, of Coffee, has our thanks for some peculiar specimens of rock, which he sent in Monday. The rock is of a brown appearance, and among the specimens, imbedded in a rock, was the petrified form of a monster fossil.

C. V. Weller, of Cerro Gordo, informs us that he bought in the neighborhood of 50,000 pounds of cotton at his place last Saturday, paying $2.35 per hundred for it. Hardin & Smith, of the same place, bought between 30 and 40,000 lbs. of the same cotton, wagon loads of the white staple the same day.

W. J. Goodrich, Redden, Tenn., writes: I have used Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine 10 years. It is good for any Stomach or Liver troubles. I think it has four times the strength of Black Draught. It would rather pay 25c per bottle than have Zeilins free. The whole lot being in the "Big Contest," Welch Bros.

A BRIGHT FUTURE

For Cotton.

REPORTS FROM VARIOUS STATES Show a Shortage In The White Staple.

Cotton is steadily on the increase and must go higher. The farmers should hold their cotton for the advancing prices, which point to a six-cent cotton. Though the true situation is thus: the farmers are marketing their cotton as fast as possible in their anxiety to secure the present prices, which are so much higher than those of last year. This points to a short crop, which we believe will soon be fully realized.

Squaw Vine Wine or Tablets are now sold by all Leading Drug-gists throughout the State. Sold by J. K. Barlow.

THEY SAY

That some sick.

That the girls and boys went possum hunting.

That yes is sometimes hard to say—well, yes.

That Shakespeare never repeats—but there are others.

That what other people think is not always true.

That think twice before you shoot your "bazzoo."

That some things are mysterious.

That in the gulley he went.

That the latest thing in the hat is an eagle feather—can't you see?

That if you don't like the "They Say Column" don't read it.

That Cronon Carter went to Adamsville Saturday "cortin'."

That J. R. Cunningham has not heard from Texas in several months. What's the matter John?

That Will Barnhill says he sometimes can't think of anything to talk about.

That Con Welch says he has rollers under his feet.

That Savannah has "got 'um."

That the senior editor is expecting his "music box" next week.

That phosphate talk in Hardin county is still on the increase.

That "competition" in all lines of business—even in cotton traffic—is a good thing for the people.

That the Board of Health seldom ever meet, but are satisfied with the filthy condition of the town, and the frequent funeral processions.

J. R. Cunningham is in the city this week.

"Ready to Wear."

Hats of any description at Miss Jessie Archer's Millinery Store.

Miss Lodoski Leeth and Miss Amy Mangum spent Sunday with the former's mother, at Hamburg.

Drummers Joe Mitchell, W. E. Morris and Bob Hamilton spent Sunday with home folks in the city.

Miss Jessie Archer returned Friday of last week from a six weeks stay with her parents, at Baldwin, Miss.

Misses Blanche Street, Mamie Guinn, Robbie Guinn and Blanche Guinn made the Courier office an appreciated call Saturday afternoon.

Don't fail to get yourself a "Rough Rider" Sailor from Miss Jessie Archer. They are all the go.

Simmons Squaw Vine Wine is highly recommended for Female Complaints. Sold by J. K. Barlow.

Call and see Miss Jessie Archer's New Fall and Winter Hats. Children's Caps and Baby Bonnets.

Congressman T. W. Sims, of this congressional district, was in Savannah first of the week mixing with his numerous friends. The Colonel is in splendid health, and is making ready for the campaign for the congressional plum next year. The Colonel, of course will have opposition for the nomination, but we predict that he will win, easily.

Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine Clears the Complexion, gives Buoyance to the Mind, cures Headache, Regulates Stomach, Bowels, and Liver. Sold by McDougall & Co.

The Semi-Weekly American and the Savannah Courier can be had for 1.25 for a few weeks yet.

It is ink of it: The Semi-Weekly strength of Black Draught and the Savannah Courier would rather pay 25c per bottle than have Zeilins free. The whole lot being in the "Big Contest," Welch Bros.

PHOSPHATE BEDS

Discovered Near Henderson.

Capt. Albert Anderson has made a rich phosphate discovery near Henderson, in Chester county, and secured an option upon the lands containing the mineral. The supply is said to be inexhaustible, and Capt. Anderson will lose no time in developing the mines. Interest in the discovery is indicated by the eager desire of citizens to purchase stock.

When you ask for M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine, see that you get it and not some worthless imitation. Sold by McDougall Drug Co.

Another Railroad.

A charter for a new railroad for this section, to be known as the Mt. Pleasant, Tennessee River & Milan Railway, has been filed in the register's office at Columbia, and papers forwarded to the Secretary of State, for approval. The incorporators are Messrs. J. F. Fussell, W. B. Gordon, J. H. Cunningham, A. M. Hughes and H. F. Alexander. The proposed road will be very nearly 100 miles long and will pass through some of the most fertile sections of the country, besides much valuable phosphate lands. The route is from Mt. Pleasant to the west through the country around Hampshire to the Tennessee River—Mt. Pleasant Chronicle.

In congratulating its farmer friends on the rise in cotton, the Jackson County Herald says it affords them a mighty good chance to settle those overdue subscriptions.

Savannah District.

I have closed my quadrennium in the Savannah District. They have been years of trials, toil and pleasures. I am thankful that I have been blessed with strength to fill out the time. I have met hundreds of nice people, and formed ties of friendship which no time or space can break. The people and preachers have been kind to me. I leave the District with the kindest feeling for all, and wish for my successor great success in the work that awaits him. Mr. Editor, I thank you for your weekly visits to our home in the form of the Courier. Success to you and your paper. Allow me to bid farewell to all.

J. W. HENSLEY.

On account of breaking some of the machinery J. K. Barlow's gin was delayed for two days this week.

Red Sulphur Springs.

Mr. Editors:—Will say the old 9th district is wide-awake, with two cotton gins, five saw mills, one handle mill and two steam grist mills in operation. We can stand inside district line and hear six more whistles blow, and some sixty to eighty hands making crossties in the district. So, while our corn crops are light, our timber business is very heavy.

R. J. Sawyers is confined to his bed with fever and mumps.

Mrs. Carson, of Ark., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Sawyers, for some months, has returned home.

Mr. Otis Joslin, of Tishomingo county, Miss., was married to a Miss Morris, of same county, last Sunday. Rev. H. J. Bozelle, officiating.

Mr. John C. Kerr and estimable lady was visiting friends, of which they have many in the 9th, where they are so well and favorably known.

Remarkable Career.

Some History of the Long, Eventful Life of Noble Wesley Covey, Esq.

TRIBUTE FROM MASONIC LODGES.

Noble Wesley Covey, Esq., was born in Guilford county, North Carolina, Oct. 25, 1808, and died at the home of his son, Dr. L. E. Covey, near Savannah, Tennessee, Sept. 25, 1899, having reached the great age of 90 years, 11 months. With his parents he came to Middle Tennessee in 1817.

Martha Ann Brown was born in Charlotte county, Virginia, March 29, 1816. Her parents moved to Tennessee in 1819.

In Maury county, Aug. 5, 1834, these, then two young people, plighted to each other their lives, and were united in marriage by Rev. Hartwell H. Brown. Not many years after their marriage, they settled on Turkey Creek, in Hardin county, Tennessee. For nearly sixty-five years they lived happily together. She died June 27, 1899, age 83 years 3 months less 2 days. She preceded him to the skies scarcely three months. They were members of the Methodist church about seventy years. They were lovely and pleasant in their lives and in death they are not divided.

They were buried at the old "Graham's Chapel" cemetery, a spot sacred to many, in this, and other lands whose loved ones rest here. A large number of friends and neighbors witnessed the burial of each.

Esq. Covey's Masonic brethren of Lowryville, Savannah and other lodges pronounced the beautiful Masonic burial service over his grave.

Esq. Covey led an active, useful and successful life. For forty years he was a public officer in the county. His long public service demonstrated the esteem in which he was held by the people. His life's experience was very unusual. Life did not play false with him. He felt that he could look back upon a life well spent and free from self-reproach.

Most men must confess that they have made so many mistakes have failed to improve so many opportunities, reckoned according to the measure of success, from some points of view, their lives have been a disappointment. This was not Esq. Covey's experience, as related by himself. The writer remembers, for he was impressed with the statement, more than one occasion when Esq. Covey has told him, that his life had been to him eminently satisfactory. That he had had greater success, and had accomplished more in his younger days than he had ever anticipated.

Esquire and Mrs. Covey reared nine children, four of whom are living. They leave thirty grandchildren and twenty-three great-grandchildren.

For several years Esq. Covey was almost blind. His wife led him about among their friends whose company he enjoyed, seeming cheerful and preserving his contented disposition.

After the death of his wife, whose companionship he had enjoyed for so many years, he seemed anxious to go and be with her, where there will be no more parting, and where they need "not the light of the sun or the moon."

These good old people "climbed together the hill" of life, together, hand in hand they have "tottered down and sleep at the foot."

They lived and died in the Christian faith. We commend their lives as worthy of emulation.

"Life's duty done, as sinks the clay, Light from its load the spirit flies; While heaven and earth combine to say, How blest the righteous when he dies."

IN MEMORIAM.

Lowryville Lodge F. & A. M. No. 298.

Oct. 3, 1899.—Death has again knocked at our portals. Our venerable brother, Noble Wesley Covey, Esq., has been transferred from our circle to the Supreme Lodge above.

Brother Covey was born in North Carolina, Oct. 25, 1808, and died at the home of his son, Dr. L. E. Covey, near Savannah, Tennessee, Sept. 25, 1899, being 90 years 11 months of age. His beloved wife preceded him scarcely three months to the grave. He was buried by her side at Graham's Chapel. His masonic brethren of Lowryville, Savannah, and other lodges pronounced the burial service over his grave.

In the death of Brother Covey, the Lodge has lost a worthy brother, the church a true and faithful member, and the community its oldest and one of its revered and respected citizens.

Resolved; That we humbly submit to the will of our Heavenly Father;

That we extend our sympathy to his bereaved children and friends, and commend to them and our brethren, his life as an example worthy of emulation;

That a page in our Minute book be set apart to his memory. That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes; be published in the Savannah Courier, and a copy sent to his children.
